

Ed Partnerships 2026-2027

Refreshed and Reimagined - Same Great Program

Educational Partnerships provides educators, paraprofessionals, and support staff with current research, best practices, and coaching for supporting individuals with complex learning profiles, including those with Down syndrome, intellectual disabilities, and/ or co- existing autism and ADHD.

For Parents/Caregivers:	For Educators:
• (4) 1.5 hour Parent/Caregiver sessions with different speakers (VIRTUAL) ◦ 10/8/2026 (7:00-8:30PM) ◦ 12/3/2026 (7:00-8:30PM) ◦ 2/18/2027 (7:00-8:30PM) ◦ 4/8/2027 (7:00-8:30PM) • Access to Club 21's Educational Consultant (Lucia Serio, Licensed Educational Psychologist) to troubleshoot IEP and education-related challenges that arise during the school year • 2 Homeschool/Alternative Schools sessions (VIRTUAL) ◦ 11/12/2026 (7:00-8:30PM) ◦ 3/11/2027 (7:00-8:30PM)	• (2) Educator Symposiums (VIRTUAL) Join a variety of educational professionals from across the country as they discuss best practices in supporting learners with Down syndrome and other disabilities ◦ Fall Symposium: 10/3/2026 (9:00AM-2:00PM on Zoom) ◦ Spring Symposium: 3/6/2027 (9:00AM-2:00PM on Zoom) • Tools for the Journey Conference (1/30/2027) • Monthly newsletter with resources (by Arielle Starkman, Inclusion Consultant) • Access to the Teachable Library of speaker recordings and the modifications database, which houses a variety of sample lessons and templates for educator access • Access to an Inclusion Consultant (Arielle Starkman) to troubleshoot IEP and education-related challenges that arise during the school year

COST:

- 1 Parent/Caregiver + 1 Educator: $480
- Additional Educators: $120 each
- Educator/Service Provider Only: $120

VENDOR #PD2655