Savanna Flakes, EdS

I'm a Possibilitarian! What's your Superpower?

Everything is "Possible" with Inclusion! Savanna provides a road map on why inclusive practitioners are really superheroes in disguise. Inclusive teachers use evidence-based strategies, collaborate with intentionality to increase access to the curriculum, and differentiate instruction to increase social and academic achievement for ALL students.

Savanna Flakes is an award-winning, international inclusion consultant whose mission is to ignite fires within others to create sustainable change on topics such as Inclusion and Equity, Dynamic Collaboration, and Shaking Up Special Education. Savanna is the founder and CEO of Inclusion For a Better Future and partners with school communities around the world to share effective instructional practices for students with exceptionalities.
